

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 3 – River Rouge Park

This is Ty Cobb Field. The infield surface was rough and uneven with grass interspersed.

The player benches at this baseball field were tipped over and unusable. There was also no fencing to protect the players. The infield had inadequate athletic mill and an uneven surface. Weeds were growing around the play area.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 3 – River Rouge Park

Tennis

Overall Evaluation – Good Condition

- The park had nine tennis courts, all were useable.
- Court surfaces were painted with minimal cracks.

Court surfaces were painted and had minimal cracks. All courts had nets.

City of Detroit
Department of Recreation Performance Audit
Exhibit 3 – River Rouge Park

Shelters

Overall Evaluation – Fair Condition

The park holds two shelters, both needed repair.

This shelter needed paint, however the roof appeared to be in good condition.